Entrepreneurial Mindset Course

An Entrepreneurship Course for College Students From All Disciplines

An entrepreneurial mindset doesn't just require critical thinking skills—it is an outlook that combines the ability to find or create new opportunities with the courage to act on them.

Through the Entrepreneurial Mindset course, students can deepen their innovative and creative thought and action practice with the help of techniques developed by expert faculty members at the No. 1 college for entrepreneurship in the United States. This entrepreneurship course empowers students to navigate uncertainty and ambiguity, while also embracing new ventures that arise under such conditions.

Developing an entrepreneurial mindset requires practice, so this course encourages action, learning, and building in order to begin developing the courage to act on entrepreneurial opportunities in the future.
