The Stephen D. Cutler Center for Investments and Finance at Babson College is committed to advancing the understanding and practice of investments and finance in our global economy. Dedicated in March 2000, the award-winning center provides programs and resources that enrich student experience, support faculty research, and engage our alumni community. The center enhances Babson’s innovative and practical approach to finance education, and enables industry practitioners, faculty, and students to collaborate and learn from one another.

“The Cutler Center exemplifies Babson’s real-world approach to education, its commitment to innovative research, and state-of-the-art resources and programs that uniquely prepare students for careers in investments and finance.”

—Bruce Herring ’87, CIO, Fidelity Management and Research

Ranked #11 in Financial Management

Bloomberg Businessweek
Resources
The Cutler Center reflects Babson’s commitment to provide real-world educational experience in the study of investments and finance. Some of the information services available here include the following:

Argus
Bloomberg
Capital IQ
Compustat
CRSP
ExecuComp
KLD Global Socrates
Morningstar.com
Northfield
S&P
SDC Platinum
Schweser
TAQ
Thomson Deals
Thomson One Banker
Value Line
VentureExpert
WRDS

Recruitment and Hiring
Approximately 30 percent of Babson’s graduating students accept offers in the fields of investments and finance, and are recruited by leading global organizations. For more information on recruiting Babson students, go to:

www.babson.edu/recruiting

Teaching and Research
Michael A. Goldstein, Ph.D.

Professor and Finance Division Chair
The Cutler Center supports the finance faculty and its valuable research, which allows both individuals and executives to make better decisions. The finance division offers intellectually rigorous programs taught by professors and practitioners who bring practical, real-world experience to Babson’s students. The faculty’s classroom teaching and research are enhanced by supervising students performing consulting engagements at leading organizations.

Babson College Fund
Richard A. Spillane Jr., CFA

Faculty Director, Babson College Fund
The Babson College Fund (BCF) helps train future investment managers. It is an accredited course and program in which a select group of students from both the undergraduate and graduate schools manages a portion of the Babson College endowment. The program builds students’ investment research and portfolio management skills, and offers practical, hands-on experience. The BCF has beaten the S&P 500 over the past five years.

Thought Leadership and Education
The Cutler Center promotes thought leadership and education by hosting leading speakers from academia to government to investment management who present and interact with our faculty, students, alumni, and business leaders. Recent speakers include Dr. Karl E. Case, developer of S&P Case-Shiller Index; Dr. Erik R. Sirri, former director, SEC Division of Trading and Markets; Thomas E. Faust, chairman, president, and CEO, Eaton Vance; Peter A. Brooke, chairman and former CEO, Advent International; Seth Klarman, founder and president, Baupost Group; Walter C. Donovan, CIO, Putnam Investments; and Daniel J. Fuss, vice chairman, Loomis Sayles & Company.

Student Finance Organizations
The Center helps develop student leaders by sponsoring multiple student organizations. These organizations allow Babson students the opportunity to expand and deepen their knowledge of the investments and finance world. They often host speakers, workshops, and conferences and work closely with their finance faculty advisors.