As Babson’s new president, and a new Wellesley resident, I want to first thank the people of Wellesley and Needham for providing me with a warm, receptive, and supportive welcome to the wonderful towns we have the privilege to live and work in together.

My expectation is that Babson will continue to be both a good neighbor and reliable partner as we strive to further enhance the already strong bonds we’ve forged over many decades. The support we receive from the citizens of Wellesley and Needham is a key component in Babson’s success. We all benefit from having a strong, dynamic Babson as part of the fabric of our local communities, and look forward to our best days which I believe, like you, lie ahead.

Babson is a place that not only seeks out, but celebrates, positive change. Every day, members of the Babson community take action to advance the world’s greatest force for economic opportunity and social improvement—entrepreneurship. In the online version of this year’s report (www.babson.edu/community), we’ve created a special section that highlights local entrepreneurs who are making a positive impact on our communities and economy. They are wonderful examples of the diversity, creativity, and originality that Babson College is proud to inspire.

An addition to campus that I’m sure will earn rave reviews is the arrival of the world renowned Commonwealth Shakespeare Company, now in permanent residence at Babson. I’m sure many of you have traveled to Boston Common in the summer to take in a performance, and we’re excited to bring that great experience right to your front door. I am extending you a personal invitation to see the CSC live and up close on campus during the coming year.

In the pages to follow, you’ll see the positive impact Babson made in our community during the 2012–2013 fiscal year. I urge you to continue to visit our campus, attend cultural and athletic events, and join us in the years ahead as we identify new and exciting ways to engage with the communities of Wellesley and Needham.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE LOCALLY

Babson students, faculty, and staff donate thousands of hours each year, volunteering at local and national organizations. The Bernon Center for Public Service coordinates both one-time and ongoing volunteer opportunities for the Babson community.

- The goal of the Natalie Taylor Scholar Program is to formally engage students in service experiences embedded in their academic and cocurricular experiences. The program was created to recognize and reward community and civic engagement and distinguish students who have committed themselves to service, community engagement, and social responsibility.
- The Bernon Center supports the annual Cruickshank 5K Race for Shelter, which attracted more than 300 participants and raised almost $5,500 for Babson’s Habitat for Humanity chapter.

COLLABORATING WITH OUR COMMUNITY

AT BABSON, WE THINK COLLABORATION ACROSS DISCIPLINES IS THE WAY TO GENERATE CREATIVE SOLUTIONS TO CHALLENGING ISSUES. THROUGH PARTNERSHIPS WITH LOCAL ORGANIZATIONS, WE'RE ABLE TO HAVE A POSITIVE IMPACT IN MORE CORNERS OF THE COMMUNITY.

The Three College Collaboration is a joint effort among Babson, Olin, and Wellesley colleges to develop interdisciplinary approaches to teaching and problem solving. Integrating the unique disciplines of each of these colleges—business, engineering, and liberal arts—and applying them to real-world issues results in a positive impact on the community. One example is the foundational course for the Three College Collaboration's Sustainability Certificate, where Babson, Olin, and Wellesley (B.O.W) students and professors work together to present recommendations for enhanced sustainability to local businesses and citizens.

- Babson Board Fellows program places Babson MBA students and recent alumni volunteers as nonvoting members of local nonprofit boards. Nonprofits benefit from fresh insights and student contributions to board committees and special projects, while students benefit from exposure to board-level decision making, mentorship, and project experience. The goals of the program are to support local nonprofits, to build a culture of service within the Babson MBA community, and to give Babson students another opportunity to put their MBA skills into practice.

For the 2013-2014 program, Babson Board Fellows are partnering with:
- The Foundation for Children's Books
- Partners for Youth with Disabilities
- COMPASS for Kids
- Communities United Inc.

In partnership with MassChallenge, Babson created a graduate student business hatchery space in Boston's Innovation District. Hatcheries provide a vibrant atmosphere conducive to sharing ideas and information. The spaces give student entrepreneurs the environment they need to quickly grow their business. This is another way that Babson support entrepreneurial activity fueling social and economic advancement in the Boston area.

- The educational component of the Goldman Sachs 10,000 Small Businesses initiative was developed by Babson, with the goal of the program to support the creation of jobs, while enhancing the entrepreneurial ecosystem in each area the program operates.

- Babson is the halfway point start site for the Boston Marathon Jimmy Fund Walk in September. Volunteers include Babson students, faculty, and staff.
