Letter from the Director

International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS) is committed to providing culturally sensitive and comprehensive advisory services of the highest quality to Babson’s international students and scholars and their families. We educate and advise on ever-changing immigration regulations and provide outreach and support when events locally and globally impact our international population. As we do so, we are mindful of each student’s unique experiences and complex identity (including but not limited to their nationality, heritage, faith, gender, sexual orientation and socio-economic status).

With regard to our continuing efforts toward inclusion, it is worth noting that the female/male gender binary is used throughout this report because of current limitations within federal immigration forms/systems. In all other contexts and interactions, the ISSS team respects a student’s declared gender identity and gender pronouns.

As a snapshot in time, the ISSS annual report illustrates Babson’s increasing international population but does not capture all of the students/scholars with whom we work in a given year. Examples not included in the statistics include those enrolled in Summer, Executive Education and Babson Global programs. I hope you find the report useful and I welcome comments and questions.

It continues to be a privilege to work so closely with our international population and with colleagues across campus who also strive to maintain Babson’s commitment creating a welcoming and affirming community for all students. Please let me and/or other ISSS Team members know if we can be of further assistance.

Sincerely,

Jamie Kendrioski
Director, International Services & Multicultural Education

International students account for 28% of the undergraduate student population.

216 international students interned at 184 companies during AY ‘17-18 under Curricular Practical Training (CPT) work authorization.

43 undergraduate students from 29 countries are Babson Global Scholars, members of a need-based scholarship program launched in 2014.

48% increase in the total international student enrollment over the past 10 years with a 75% increase at the undergraduate level.

Babson was Awarded the Senator Paul Simon Award for Campus Internationalization, which recognizes U.S. colleges and universities that are making significant, well-planned, well-executed, and well-documented progress toward comprehensive internationalization—especially those using innovative and creative approaches.

229 U.S. dual citizens and 131 U.S. permanent residents make up 11% of the undergraduate and 11% of the graduate student populations.

This document is a snapshot of the international population during the fall semester unless otherwise indicated. Excluded from these statistics are those enrolled in programs that take place exclusively in the spring and/or summer, U.S. permanent residents, dual citizens, Babson employees, cross-registered students or those enrolled in Executive Education and Babson Global programs.
