ALUMNI NEWS

The Classes

UNDERGRAD NEWS

1957
Dick Kozacko emails, “After 42-plus years in Elmira, N.Y., we moved to Raleigh, N.C., in July. We are part of the Brier Creek Country Club development in North Raleigh and enjoy the area immensely—very friendly people and a lot to do. I also moved the company, Kozacko Media Services, but was not able to persuade my office manager of 14 years to leave her family and move, too. My new email is dick@kozacko.com.”

1961
Andy Mandell was profiled in an article, “Andy Mandell: For Data-Mail’s Mandell, Success Is a Family Matter,” in the Oct. 8 issue of the Hartford Business Journal and online at HartfordBusiness.com. He is founder and chair of Data-Mail Inc., a family-owned, full-service direct-mail production company in Newington, Conn. Andy was honored in November at the paper’s Third Annual Lifetime Achievement Awards ceremony, at which he and three local business leaders received awards.

1972
Rock Roan emails from Memphis, Tenn., “I had a great time on campus in September at our Theta Chi reunion. A group of almost 20 brothers, past and present, gathered in the Golf Suite to reminisce and hear what the fraternity is doing today. In 1971, the Theta Chi chapter transitioned from Alpha Delta Sigma, a national honor fraternity, to Theta Chi chapter.” Rock also mentioned the Business.com. He is founder and president of QuantumMeetings (quantummeetings.com).

1981
David Barber emailed in November, “My son, Jack Barber ’15, and his friend, Ben Berman, started an exciting business, Mainely Burgers, a gourmet hamburger food truck in Scarborough Beach, Maine, near Portland. I was so impressed with their research and business plan that I invested in the venture. Last season, Jack and Ben ran the operation with 10 employees. Next year, they’ll be at the beach again and plan to buy a second truck.”

1987
Paul Gilbody has been appointed president and CEO of Leominster Credit Union. The credit union has more than 50,000 members and offices in Leominster, Worcester, Holden, Clinton, and Sterling, Mass. Previously, he was executive vice president, COO, and senior lender at Bay State Savings Bank in Worcester.

He also serves on the boards of Devereux Massachusetts, a nonprofit behavioral health organization, and the Central Massachusetts Workforce Investment Board, a local workforce development initiative.

1988 25th reunion
Peter Cosco emails, “Last year, I started 4Forces Group (4Forces Group.com), a growth acceleration firm. I am leveraging 24 years of experience in print, cable, digital, sports media, and consulting to help companies with their growth planning/execution and marketing services needs. We operate as on-demand interim CMOs for clients such as Deloitte and Meredith Corp., as well as startups LiveClips, Sport195, and SocialFlow. Love being on my own—the Babson way!”

Craig Benson ’77, H’03 (fourth from right), received the Cruikshank Alumni Leadership Award at the annual Leadership Awards event during Back to Babson. The other award recipients were (from left) Professor Candida Brush; Hugh Glazer ’77, P’13; Jill Cartwright, MBA’07; Jennifer Gottberg ’88; Kevin Gray ’92, MBA’97; Davide Visco ’95; Jeremy Hill ’04; George Lee; and Nicolas So- remsen, MBA’10. Recipient Francisco Opazo, MBA’08, is not in the photo. For more information, please visit www.babson.edu/alumni/events/recognition.

George Tavlas ’67 is director general of the Bank of Greece in Athens, Greece, and an alternate member of the European Central Bank’s governing council in Frankfurt, Germany. He emails, “I was a distinguished visiting scholar at Drexel University’s LeBow College of Business in 2012 and will be a visiting fellow at the University of Chicago’s Becker Friedman Institute in 2013.” George is editor-in-chief of Open Economies Review.

Brian Fierston has been elected to the board of trustees of the Jewish Community Foundation of Greater Hartford [Conn.]. A certified financial planner, he is vice president at Fierston Financial Group Inc., where he has worked since 1991. He also is a member of the board at Watkinson School in Hartford.

Patti Laughren has been appointed vice president, accountable health systems and provider innovation at Regence in Portland, Ore. Previously, she was vice president, provider engagement at Humana Inc. in Chicago.

BACK to BABSON
September 27–28, 2013
Reunion and Homecoming
Shawn Gallaway '82 has combined music and art in his debut book, I Choose Love: A Journey of Healing and Transformation, which includes a CD. He emails from Nashville, Tenn., “For 20 years, I have been writing and recording what I call ‘conscious music.’ I use the power of the arts to assist in awakening the heart of humanity. In 2009, I was asked to share my signature song and music video, I Choose Love, for the induction of the Dalai Lama as a Freedom Award recipient by the National Civil Rights Museum in Memphis.” For more information, visit shawngallaway.com.

Rusty Vanneman has been appointed chief investment officer at CLS Investments in Omaha, Neb. He leads the firm’s portfolio management and investment research teams and sits on the CLS investment committee. Previously, he was chief investment officer and portfolio manager at Kobren Insight Management. A CFA, he also is a chartered market technician. Rusty serves on Babson’s Board of Overseers.

1989
Brett Markinson is CEO and founder of Sole Society Inc., a new direct-to-consumer website for shoes. Sole society.com bypasses traditional retailers to sell shoes at a lower cost. Previously, he was chairman and co-founder of HauteLook.com, which was acquired by Nordstrom in March 2011.

1991
John Farley has been promoted to assistant vice president at Lincoln Property Co., a real estate management and consulting company. He lives in Newtown, Conn., with his wife, Alisa, and their three children.

Paul Paradis is the second-generation owner and president of the Paradis True Value hardware store in Bar Harbor, Maine. A Republican, he was a candidate for the District 35 seat in the state’s House of Representatives in November. He is serving his third term as a town councilor and is chair of the town’s cruise ship committee.

1996
Ronald Sylvestri and Melissa Iorio were married on Oct. 27 in Warwick, Bermuda. Melissa is a partner of Barlington Capital, a hedge fund, and Ronald owns Quail Ridge Asset Management, both in New York.

1997
Gene Katz has been named a managing director in the financial institutions group at D.A. Davidson & Co., a full-service investment firm. He focuses on banks and thrifts and is working in Davidson’s Chicago office. Previously, he was a managing director at Hovde Financial Inc., where he advised financial institutions.

2002
David Garvey (MBA’04) has been appointed to lead the New York City-based business solutions practice of Accounting Management Solutions Inc., which provides outsourced... accounting and financial management services. Previously, he was a principal with Mission Advisory Partners.

2003 10th Reunion

George Hart is co-founder of Heritage Wealth Architects (heritagewealtharchitects.com), a financial planning and investment management firm in St. Paul, Minn. He emails, “When I’m not behind the desk of my company, Amalgamated Titanium, where I manufacture parts for the construction and oil industries, I’m typically in a kayak, hunting the ocean for big bluefin tuna, which have taken me on Nantucket sleigh rides. I made my personalized fishing gear out of titanium, and the rod and reel have become so popular I created a limited run on Kickstarter.”

Dave Lamoureux ’89 (left) is shown four miles off the coast of Cape Cod with Eric Young, wrestling star turned host of Animal Planet’s Off The Hook: Extreme Catches fishing show. Dave emails, “When I’m not behind the desk of my company, Amalgamated Titanium, where I manufacture parts for the construction and oil industries, I’m typically in a kayak, hunting the ocean for big bluefin tuna, which have taken me on Nantucket sleigh rides. I made my personalized fishing gear out of titanium, and the rod and reel have become so popular I created a limited run on Kickstarter.”

Tanya Sambatakos was featured as an emerging leader of Maine’s legal profession in, “The Lawyer: Financial Crises Are Her Calling,” in the October issue of Maine Women magazine and posted on Sept. 28 on keepmecurrent.com. She is a partner of Molleur Law Office, a bankruptcy and consumer rights firm, and practices in its Portland and Biddeford offices. Tanya also is a board member of Habitat for Humanity of Greater Portland.

2004

Michael Baer was honored in September as a member of the inaugural class of Empire State Fellows by New York Governor Andrew Cuomo. The program prepares professionals for policy-making roles in New York government and is a part of the governor’s New York Leaders Initiative. A CFA, Michael is CFO for JP Morgan’s U.S. equity, global multi-asset group, private equity, and hedge fund investment platforms. He is a marathon runner and triathlete.

Mira Gulati is the CEO and head designer at Mirari (mirari.com), a New Delhi-based jewelry company that she founded in 2005. She and her business were featured in an article, “Creator of Heirlooms,” in the Oct. 31 issue of Hindustan Times.

2005

Ming Hui, an analyst in the global credit research group at Putnam Investments in Boston, is president of the Boston chapter of the National Association of Asian-American Professionals. She was featured in an article, “Professional Groups Offer Career Training, Networking Events,” in the Oct. 29 issue of the Boston Herald. In addition to sponsoring events, workshops, and conferences, the association has given $130,000

Mario Ricciardelli ’89 (right) and his wife, Nancy, visited London’s Trafalgar Square with their three children in June. He is founder and CEO of Salem, Mass.-based HipHost (hiphost.com), a community marketplace for customized tours led by locals in more than 100 cities worldwide. He emails, “After selling StudentCity in 2004 and building up an educational travel division for TUI Travel, I took some time off in late 2010. Now I’m living in Marblehead and working on HipHost, a startup that enables passionate locals to share their knowledge and expertise with travelers.”

Back to Babson

September 27–28, 2013
Reunion and Homecoming

Babson MBA graduates are securing full-time jobs in organizations of all types and sizes.

Babson Talent Makes a Difference

Babson students and graduates consistently make an impact within our partner companies through internships, consulting projects, and full-time positions.

Let Babson Be Your Partner
www.babson.edu/recruiting in college scholarships to local Asian high school students during the past five years.

2006

Alexander Thomson-Payan owns Electrix Group, based in Angola. Electrixtel (electrixtel.com), an arm of the company, imports, distributes, and sells telecommunications products and accessories. The September issue of Forbes Africa profiled Alex in an article, “A Good Call: Twenty-Eight-Year-Old American-Colombian Entrepreneur, Alexander Thomson-Payan, First Set Foot in Angola Five Years Ago. Now He Owns a Multi-million-Dollar Company and Has a House on the Beach.”

Andrew Woodward and Kristen Midon are engaged to be married in June in Concord, Mass. Kristen is a second-year medical student at Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia, and Andrew is co-founder and partner of Propel Funding Accelerators (wepropel.com), a financial and strategic consulting firm, and a director at Gamer Health, a health-care management and consulting firm in Los Angeles.

2007

Ryan Campbell is engaged to marry Emily Mercer on April 27. Emily is an advertising executive at Cramer-Krasselt Advertising, and Ryan is a commodities trader with Geneva Trading, both in Chicago.

Maja Stevanovich emails, “I am the new social media lead for the Air Force Mobility Command at Scott Air Force Base in Illinois. I completed my master’s from Gonzaga University by getting my thesis, a rhetorical analysis on social media discourse, published in December. I also am working with Louisiana State University to start its social media program and have taught a few public relations classes. And I was awarded the Air Force Commendation Medal for my service to the Air Force Global Strike Command!”

2008 5th Reunion

Jason Wellemeyer and Tyler Low ’09 are co-owners of the Boston Rockhoppers (bostonrockhoppers.com), an indoor lacrosse team that plays its home games in eastern Massachusetts. The pair was featured in an article, “Pro Lacrosse Coming to New England Sports Center: Marlboro Home to Rockhoppers,” in the Oct. 14 issue of the Telegram & Gazette. Jason and Tyler also are owners and founders of Prime Time Lacrosse (primetime lacrosse.com).

2009

Tyler Low : See Jason Wellemeyer ’08.

Jesse Morris co-founded Street Smarts Media (streetsmartsmedia.com), a New York City-based alternative marketing company. Jesse emails, “We literally place advertisements directly in the hands of consumers via custom-printed napkins. Our network of more than 500 licensed food carts allows us to target specific demographics in the city, and our average cart distributes 2,000 to 2,500 napkins a week. We print in four colors, using 100 percent recycled pulp and compostable paper.”

2010

Carmela Alvarez is the mayor of San Vicente, Palawan, in the Philippines. She was featured in a Sept. 20 article, “Mayor Pie Alvarez: Coming of Age,” posted on philstar.com. The youngest mayor in Philippine history and the first female mayor of San Vicente, Carmela began her campaign during her last semester at Babson.

Alexander Debelov is a co-founder of Virool (virool.com), a viral video ad network that helps advertisers reach their desired audience by placing their video inside Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest, and other sites to spread the message and shed light on this silent epidemic.

---

Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest, and other sites to spread the message and shed light on this silent epidemic.
surpassed Virool’s initial investment goal.
Alex Moazed is the founder and CEO of Applico (applicoinc.com), a mobile consulting and development firm headquartered in New York City. The firm, which established its first office in Santa Monica, Calif., opened the Applico Mobile Engineering Center in Boston in September.

2012
Anushka Kassim has been appointed social media strategist at Grant Marketing in Boston. Grant is an advertising agency focusing on brand development and integrated marketing.

1976
Shepard Wilbar has written Dancing on the Edge, a thriller about a wealthy young Boston real estate developer who ran into trouble in the 1980s. For the novel, Shepard drew on his experience as a property acquisition specialist and developer.

1977
Ellen Shanley, a registered dietitian and certified dietitian nutritionist, received the Medallion Award at the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics’ annual conference and expo in Philadelphia in October. The award honors members who have demonstrated leadership and dedication to dietetics and allied health fields. Ellen is director of the dietetics program at the University of Connecticut’s College of Agriculture and Natural Resources.

1985
Susan Gladstone has been named director of development at the Concord Museum in Concord, Mass. The 125-year-old museum chronicles the town’s unique place in American history. Sue emails, “After a marketing career at high-tech startups, I moved into development and fundraising for nonprofits 10 years ago. The marketing and entrepreneurship skills I learned at Babson have been applicable at profits and nonprofits alike.” Sue also is a member of the board of directors of the Concord Youth Theater.

In October, the Babson Alumni Club of Japan hosted its third annual meeting in Tokyo. Forty-two alumni and Kenichi Matsuno, associate professor of marketing, attended. The club’s new board (not all pictured) comprises chair Junichi Murata, MBA’60, H’92; vice chairs Motoya Okada, MBA’79, Shuhei Abe, MBA’80, Akio Toyoda, MBA’82, and Seilichi Sato, MBA’85; members Keichiro Mashimo, MBA’93, Kaoru Nakashima, MBA’95, Natsume Haniu ’96, Isamu Masuda, MBA’97, Hisae Takahashi ’97, Yoshikuni Nakamichi, MBA’99, Tomosada Yoshikawa, MBA’99, Sakura Nishimoto, MBA’01, Akira Takagi, MBA’02, Kensuke Harashima ’04, Kazumitsu Yokokawa, MBA’04, Hirotugu Furuya, MBA’06, and Motoori Sato, MBA’06; and adviser Ichiro Ueno ’55, H’87.
Carlos Echeverría ’74, MBA ’76 (left), emailed in November, “I just returned from a trip to Panama, on which I accompanied my superior, Juan Aleman (right), secretary general of the Central American Integration System (SICA, the equivalent of the European Union for Central America). We met with Romulo Roux ‘86 (center), Panama’s recently appointed minister of foreign affairs. I am the communications director of SICA’s general secretariat, headquartered in San Salvador, El Salvador. If you’re in the area, please contact me at cecheverria@sica.int.”

1988 25th Reunion
Theresa Christy is a research fellow at Otis Elevator Co., working in the company’s Farmington, Conn., office. She was featured in an article, “The Ups and Downs of Making Elevators,” in the Nov. 30 issue of The Wall Street Journal. A named inventor on 14 patents, Theresa writes code that makes elevators run as efficiently as possible.

Larry Raffone has been promoted to president of Financial Engines Inc., an independent investment advisory firm headquartered in Sunnyvale, Calif. He had been executive vice president for distribution and institutional services at the firm.

1993 20th Reunion
Judy Huber has been appointed CFO at NinePoint Medical Inc., a medical device company in Cambridge, Mass. Judy has more than 25 years of financial experience, primarily in the medical device industry, and previously was CFO at ConforMIS Inc.

1995
Rajesh Jaggi has been appointed managing partner of real estate business at Everstone Capital, based in Singapore. Previously, he was managing director of Peninsula Lane Ltd.

1996
Yuchun Lee has been named an independent director of the board of Vertex Pharmaceuticals Inc.; his term expires in the fall. He is vice president and general manager of IBM’s enterprise marketing management group, which was formed following the acquisition of Unica, a marketing software firm that he founded in 1992. Unica went public in 2005 and merged with IBM in 2010.

Jose Bosco Maldonado has been appointed senior vice president at Associa, a Dallas-based community association management firm. Previously, he was CEO at Servicios Maple, a real estate property management and brokerage firm in Mexico.

1999
Philippe Jeanteau co-founded Boston Global Communications and Performance (bostonglobalweb.com) in 1999. He emails, “I became the company’s director of global development and technology in September. We coach and counsel senior executives and their management teams on how to strengthen learning and communication skills. Last April, Boston Global received the 2012 Hamdan Award for excellence in teaching and coaching from the United Arab Emirates’ minister of education. We are based in Boston with offices in Paris and Dubai.”

Eric Shapiro received the Roy L. Jeannette Award for Outstanding Company/Organization in November from the Nashoba Valley Chamber of Commerce on behalf of his work in Shirley, Mass. He is a principal of Phoenix Park (phoenixparkonline.com), a renovated 300,000-square-foot business center offering office, light industrial, and lab space to the North Central part of the state.

2000
Ned May, vice president and lead analyst at Outsell Inc., also is now leading the company’s coverage of diversified publishing and information companies. The Burlingame, Calif., and London-based research and advisory firm is focused on media, information, and technology.

John Towle has been named chief marketing officer at Franklin Global Communications and Performance (bostonglobalweb.com) in 1999. He emails, “I became the company’s director of global development and technology in September. We coach and counsel senior executives and their management teams on how to strengthen learning and communication skills. Last April, Boston Global received the 2012 Hamdan Award for excellence in teaching and coaching from the United Arab Emirates’ minister of education. We are based in Boston with offices in Paris and Dubai.”

We want to hear from you! Send your suggestions, submissions, and letters to: Editor, Babson Magazine; Babson College; Babson Park, MA 02457-0310; alumninews@babson.edu; 781-239-5256. PLEASE NOTE: Babson Magazine reserves the right to edit news. No engagement or baby photos. News and photos may be used on Babson’s website.
1. Emily Marmorek ’06 and Greg St. Martin were married on June 25, 2011, in Cambridge, Mass. Alumni at the wedding included father of the bride Frank Marmorek ’65; maid of honor Tara Saxton ’03; and bridesmaids Michelle Balconi ’03, Mei Lin ’03, Maja Stevanovich ’07, and Jenna Topaz ’07. Emily is an academic administrator for the School of Graduate and Professional Programs at Wheelock College, and Greg works in marketing communications at Northeastern University.

2. Jessica McDonough ’10 and Robert DeLeon ’09 were married on Aug. 11 in Virginia Beach, Va. Alumni present were Nikzad Allahverdi, Justin Brooks, Yianni Douros, Darius Eslami, Tony Lopez, Ryan Spagnoletti, Alex Turczak, Pat Wolenter, and Mike Yaffe, all ’09; Mirna Garcia, R.J. Keeney, Nina Komm, MSA’10, Shannon Singleton, and Vanessa Theoharis, all ’10; Kerry Liszka, Alaina (Castilla) Ownbey, MSA’11, and Lee Burrows-Ownbey, all ’11; and Haya Alzaid and Annie Maraschiello, both ’12.

3. Marie Welles and Kyle Ramm, both ’08, were married on June 10 at St. Francis of Assisi in Lebanon, Conn., followed by a reception at the Alt naveigh Inn in Mansfield. Marie emails, “Alumni joining us were Alex Martin, Benjamin Perkins, and groomsman John Walton, all ’08; Chantal (Ozycz) Hendrickson ’07; Polly (Collinson) Rose ’07; Brian Rose ’06; and Lindsay Shea ’09. Sunil Desai ’07 celebrated from afar.”

4. Colleen Burke and Rob Nicewicz, both ’07, were married on June 16 at the International Golf Club in Bolton, Mass. Babson friends in attendance were Ana Foley-Schain, MSA’06, Cara Forsberg, MSA’06, Harris Glaser, Jessica Manty, MSA’06, Marci McCormack, MBA’11, and Sam Saxton, all ’06; Brian Colella, Mike Cricenti, Ted Gott, Lauren Kelleher, Jason Oifer, and Ben Webb, all ’07; and Judy Blinstrub, associate director of Athletics.

5. Jonah Eidus, MBA’09, emails, “Julia Rosof and I were married on Aug. 4 in the idyllic hills of Petaluma, Calif. We live in San Francisco, where I work on utility-scale energy efficiency programs for Honeywell Smart Grid Solutions, and Julia is program manager for Babson’s flourishing Fast Track San Francisco MBA program. Julia found the idea of marrying me to be hilarious.”

6. Lindsay Peterson ’10 and Max Owen ’09 were married on Sept. 22 in Chatham, Mass. Dennis Hanno, Murata Dean of the graduate school, officiated at the ceremony. Lindsay writes, “We wanted a Babson wedding and even invited Biz! We had a large crowd of alumni, including field hockey and lacrosse alumni, as well my parents, Susan and Richard Peterson, both ’83, and my uncle, Jim Donovan ’77.” The couple lives in New York City.

7. Kristen Browne ’06, MBA’11, and Derrick Chan were married on Sept. 8 at St. Julia Church in Weston, Mass. Wedding guests included maid of honor Kristen McQuaid ’06, Lindsey Miller ’07, Sarah “Nikki” Penikas ’07, Luis Santiago Gonzalez ’07, Jillian Gardner, MBA’12, Barend Van Hoorebeke, MBA’11, and Thomas McQuaid ’75, MBA’76, P’06. Kristen is in the General Management Apprenticeship Program at Fidelity Investments, and Derrick is vice president, centralized electronic trading at Fidelity Capital Markets.

8. Eric Ricciardelli ’07 (second from right) was married to Lauren Cooper (not shown) on June 16 in Wilmington, Del. Eric emails, “Chris Lehmann ’07 (far left) was my best man; we met at Babson freshman year. Other alumni were (from left) Spencer Blackman ’06, Lindsey Watts ’07, MSA’07, and groomsman Robert Varvara ’07. Lauren and I live in Hoboken, N.J.”

Babson Magazine requires at least 4 x 6-inch images at 300 dpi. No digital alterations, please! Wedding captions may run up to 75 words. Email your photo and caption to alum news@babson.edu. Mail traditional prints to Alumni News Editor, Babson Magazine, Babson College, Babson Park, MA 02457. If you have photo questions, contact the Alumni News editor at alumnews@babson.edu or 781-239-4269. Are you on Pinterest? Pin your wedding or baby pictures to our boards! Find us at pinterest.com/babsoncollege.
through a focus on Entrepreneurial Thought and Action," we help organizations to define and create success in new ways.

— DR. ELAINE J. EISENMAN  Dean, Babson Executive and Enterprise Education

We develop the leaders that organizations need most: those who create opportunities, navigate change, accommodate ambiguity, surmount complexity, and motivate teams to grow businesses and create economic and social value. Our solutions include customized programs, open enrollment programs, e-learning, and consulting.

BABSON / EXECUTIVE AND ENTERPRISE EDUCATION

WWW.BABSON.EDU/REE / EXEC@BABSON.EDU / 781-239-4254

Eight up-and-coming entrepreneurs and their companies were named Rising Stars at the annual Babson Alumni Entrepreneur Hall of Fame. The 2012 Rising Stars and their ventures are (from left) Michael Salguero, MBA’09, CustomMade; Sara Gragnolati, MBA’10, Cocomama Foods; Jacquelyn Graham ’09, Emma Graham Designs; Jonathan Feinman, MBA’10, InnerCity Weightlifting; Jallia Bouchareb ’08, Amal Oils; Tavinder Phull, MBA’06, Rhooest; and Joseph Lekach ’09, Dream Water. Michael Mikek, MBA’06, Celtra, is not in the photo.

MBA’06, attended Boston Business Journal’s 15th annual 40 Under 40 event in October. Carlos, senior vice president at CBRE/New England, and Jill Cartwright, MBA’07 (not shown), founder and CEO of Go GaGa, were among those honored as emerging business and civic leaders in Boston. Olivia emails, “It was exciting to see two classmates receive accolades from the Boston business community.” Olivia is senior assistant director of graduate admissions at Babson.
friends for opinions. Blurtopia inspires mobile conversations fueled by questions ranging from “Which shoes should I purchase?” to ‘What’s the best place to eat breakfast?’”

2007
Will Dorcena was featured in an article, “Dorcena to Officially Kick Off Run for Boston Mayor,” in the Nov. 14 issue of the Boston Herald. He emails, “My mayoral campaign is well under way; visit dorcena4boston.com for information and updates. I believe in strong leadership and support term limits and transparent government.” A former president of Babson’s graduate student council and a lifelong Boston resident, Will lives in Hyde Park with his wife and children.

2008 5th Reunion
Charlie Burckmyer and Scott Noll (’98) are co-founders of Knob Hill Partners, a Boston-based private investment firm. Charlie emails, “Knob Hill recently acquired Sage Data Security (sagedatasecurity.com), an information security firm headquartered in Portland, Maine, that helps clients safeguard their data against attack. We’re really excited about Sage. As part of the transaction, Scott and I will assume operational responsibility for the business and will direct additional investment in the company’s growth and geographic expansion.”

John Edenbach was married to Adrian Hinman on Sept. 29 in Newport, R.I. Adrian is a marketing and communications manager at Ralph Lauren Home, and John is a director of the hedge fund division at Bank of America Merrill Lynch, both in New York City.

Joshua Herzig-Marx and his business partner co-founded Cambridge, Mass.-based Incentive Targeting Inc. (incentivetargeting.com) in 2007; the company was acquired by Google in November. Joshua also is vice president for products and services at Incentive Targeting, which sells grocery promotional campaigns through its website.

Chinmoy Mishra is a co-founder of AllizHealth (allizhealth.com), a health-care venture that launched in India in 2011. He and the company were featured in an article, “Koramangala is the Best Market to Test Products: Chinmoy Mishra, Alliz Health.com,” posted on Nov. 6 on economictimes.com. The startup provides a platform on which users can search for doctors, read reviews, book appointments, and more.

2009
Michael Ioanilli was married to Kathleen Foley on June 16 in Aurora, N.Y. Kathleen is a corporate public relations consultant at Brunswick Group LLC, and Michael works in the corporate offices of National Grid. The couple lives in New York City.

Charles Wellington and Priya Ollapally were married on Oct. 6 in Nashville, Tenn. Priya helps organize information on The New York Times website, and Charles is co-founder and director of business development for nRelate (nrelate.com), a company that provides links to online content.

2010
Felipe Rebello, marketing manager at the Colombian Securities Exchange, emails, “The October issue of Gerente [Manager] magazine, which circulates throughout South America and the U.S., named me one of the 100 most successful managers and among the top nine marketing managers in Colombia in 2012. I was honored because the company I work for reached 1.1 million Colombians who invest directly in the stock exchange through recognized new issuers.”

2011
Miles Masci, co-founder and director of Perfect Fuel Chocolate (perfectfuelchocolate.com), has been recognized by Worldwide Who’s Who for dedication, leadership, and excellence in chocolate supply-chain management and sales. The company was featured on BostonInno in an article, “Help Willy Wonka: Perfect Fuel Launches Indiegogo Campaign to Fund New Chocolate Flavors,” posted on Sept. 7. Perfect Fuel offers an all-natural dark chocolate energy bar that includes supplements such as ginseng. The bars may be purchased online and in stores.

2012
Johan de Borst is the founder of Boston-based Find Boomer (findboomer.com), a consulting firm that helps entrepreneurs get their startups off and running. He was featured in an article, “Two Boston Startups Team Up to Help 93 Companies CrowdFund Their Way to 600 Potential New Jobs,” posted on BostInno on Nov. 28. Johan and a crowdfunding program; Launcht, have developed VoltCrowd, an accelerator designed to help startups secure funding and create jobs.

Clifton Lee and Tarik Mughisuddin are co-founders of SidewalkAd (sidewalkad.com), a mobile advertising firm based in Portsmouth, N.H.
They were featured in an Oct. 21 article, “A High-Tech Sandwich Board,” posted on Seacoastonline.com. SidewalkAd aims to help revitalize local retail communities. Using a Web-based account, business owners create, publish, and track their location-based offers. With a mobile app and their smartphones, customers can find offers, manage them, and redeem savings.

Mathew Paisner, CEO and co-founder of AlttruHelp (alttruhelp.com), emails, “AlttruHelp is a software solution and online community for increasing volunteerism and civic engagement. We are involved with A Billion + Change, an initiative run by the U.S. government, Points of Light, and the new national Civic Accelerator. The nation’s first national accelerator is investing in 10 civic ventures that address the nation’s most intractable problems, and AlttruHelp was selected for the accelerator’s inaugural class.”

Soham Patel is co-founder of MissionRoot (missionroot.com), an organic beverage line that follows his mother’s age-old recipes. He and the company were featured in an article, “A Drink with an Immune Boosting, Socially Conscious Mission,” posted on Boston.com on Oct. 29. To help fight child malnourishment, MissionRoot donates 5 percent of its profits to Akshaya Patra, an NGO that provides daily hot meals to millions of school children in India.

Margaret Norman of Franklin, Mass, formerly of Needham, died on Sept. 1. She worked at Babson from 1969 until 1981 as a clerk typist.

James Foster ’46 of Framingham and Wellesley, Mass., died on Sept. 17. An Army veteran, he was a stockbroker in Boston for almost 40 years.

William Burns ’49 of Salem, Mass., died on Oct. 5. He served in the Army Air Forces during World War II. He was manager of public relations at S.D. Warren Co.

James Evans ’49 of San Diego died on Aug. 10. He served in the Army during World War II. He worked in marketing at pharmaceutical and food companies.

Robert Hunter ’49 of Butler, Pa., died on Sept. 23. He served in the Army Air Forces during World War II. He worked at the Diamond Alkali Co.

David Sinclair ’50 of Auburn, N.Y., died on Aug. 21. He served in the Army during World War II and was treasurer at Dunn & McCarthy Co. He was predeceased by his brother, Donald Sinclair ’51.

Joseph Whitney ’50 of Edgartown and Westwood, Mass., died on Oct. 31. A Marine Corps veteran, he was CEO of three local commuter airlines.

Robert Shaffer ’52 of Wadsworth, Ohio, died on Nov. 20. He served in the Army during the Korean War. He was an engineer at Firestone Tire and Rubber for 30 years.

Robert Wickstrom ’52 of Rochester, N.Y., died on Nov. 19. He served in the Army during the Korean War and was a sales representative for U.S. Envelope Co. for more than 40 years.

Harold MacIver ’53 of St. Stephen, New Brunswick, Canada, died on Oct. 31. He worked for his family’s business, A.M. Stackpole Co., in Houlton, Maine, and other companies in the area.

Ralph Mulcahy, MBA’53, of Amhurst, Mass., died on Oct. 26. He owned and operated several businesses at Salisbury Beach.

Richard Orwig ’53 of Breckinridge, Colo., died on Oct. 24. He served in the Army during the 1950s and worked in his family’s business, a Pontiac dealership in Alliance, Ohio.

He was predeceased by his father, Arthur Orwig ’21.

John Wicks ’57 of Sherborn, Mass., died on Sept. 5. He served in the Army during the Korean War and then worked as an accountant.

Donald Block ’59 of West Hartford, Conn., died on Oct. 13. He retired as corporate vice president at Cardinal Health Inc. and president of its Marmac Distributors division, which he founded in 1972. He leaves his daughter, Julie Block Saffir ’87.

Paul Montana ’62 of Dothan, Ala., died on July 28. He was sales manager at Howell Plywood Corp.

Leslie Patterson ’62 of Santiago, Chile, and Hamilton, Bermuda, died on Nov. 29. He retired 10 years ago as general manager of Pfizer Japan.

Robert Somes ’67 of Southport, N.C., formerly of Lake Katonah, N.Y., died on Nov. 11. He served in the Navy during the Vietnam War. He was a credit and financial analyst for the banking and commodity industries.

Alexander Kelley, MBA’70, of Tewksbury, Mass., died on Nov. 2. He served in the Coast Guard during the Korean War and was an electronics engineer at Hanscom Air Force Base for 21 years.

William Love ’71 of St. Charles, Mo., died on June 16.

Charles Davis, MBA’73, of Brewster, Mass., died on July 30. He worked in marketing and sales for various companies in the electronics industry.

Malcolm Pirnie, MBA’74, of Boston died on Sept. 15. A CFA, he co-founded Harbor Capital Management Co.

Sandra Hammer, MBA’75, of White Bear Lake, Minn., died on Oct. 11. She worked in computer systems sales for Control Data and Prime Computer.

Mary Lou Reilly Valente ’80 of Cranbury, N.J., died on Nov. 4. She was an administrative assistant for the cancer center at the University Medical Center of Princeton at Plainsboro.

Courtney Price Corey ’85 of Chicago died on Dec. 5. She was vice president for audience development at the Chicago Sun-Times.