UNDERGRADUATE

Statistics

» Admissions: For the Undergraduate Class of 2016, Babson received more than 5,500 applications. The enrollment size of the Undergraduate Class of 2016 was 470 students. The SAT score range for the middle 50 percent of the admitted students was 1840-2120.

» Student body: 44 percent women; 56 percent men; 28 percent multicultural; 27 percent international; 71 percent are from outside of New England. The five most represented states outside of New England are California, Florida, New Jersey, New York, and Texas.

» Placement: Of the Class of 2012, 99 percent were employed or attending graduate school within six months of graduation. Babson's average salary of $50,478 is higher than the national average of $43,991 for business administration/management programs as reported by the National Association of College and Employers in fall 2011.

Accolades

» Named one of the “Ten Business Schools that Should Be On Your Radar” and “the country’s most prominent institution devoted entirely to business” by the Fiske Guide to Colleges 2011

» Leadership award from the Pew Charitable Trusts for taking “bold steps to reshape undergraduate programs”

» Theodore Hesburgh award for the College’s “Reinvention of the Undergraduate Business Education”

» Ranked No. 1 graduation rate among “Highly Competitive” U.S. colleges by The American Enterprise Institute for Public Policy Research

GRADUATE

Statistics

» Admissions: 78 students enrolled for the One-Year program class of 2012, 160 students enrolled for the Two-Year program class of 2013, 119 students enrolled for the FY12 Evening program, with average work experience of seven years. For the Fast Track program, 174 students enrolled, representing 10 years of work experience in the following top three industries: Financial Services and Banking, High Tech, and Health/Pharma/Biotech.
Student body: As of spring 2012, the currently enrolled graduate population includes 1,279 students; 29 percent are women and 71 percent are men; 17 percent are domestic minorities, and 20 percent are international. Of the international population, the top represented countries are India, Mexico, Venezuela, China, Chile, and Thailand.

Placement: Of the Class of 2012, 88 percent were employed within three months of graduation.

Accolades

» Ranked in Financial Times Top 100 Global MBA for Value for Money, ranking higher than Harvard University, MIT (Sloan), University of Pennsylvania (Wharton), University of Chicago (Booth), University of California, Berkeley (Haas), and Northwestern University (Kellogg)

» Only Boston-based school in top 20 of Top Part-Time MBA programs, per 2013 U.S. News & World Report ranking.

» In 2011, Bloomberg Businessweek named Babson’s MBA No. 27 in the 2011 list of Highest Paid MBA Alumni. In the Boston area, only graduates of Harvard and MIT Sloan have higher lifetime compensation.