The Classes

1935
Olan Snavely writes from Toledo, Ohio, “At 98, I suspect that I am one of the oldest alumni and one of the few from my class. The Class of ’35 had about 25 college grads along with an equal number of ‘juniors,’ men who had completed only a few years of college work. I did make a trip to a reunion on campus in 1994, and my presence was acknowledged. I thought you might enjoy hearing from an alumnus from the ‘distant past!’”

1959
Larry Fitzmaurice emails, “In February, my wife and I spent a few days on Cape Cod at the Captain’s House Inn in Chatham. The current owners/inkeepers, Jill Meyer ’99 and her husband, James, have maintained and improved the property. I’m finishing my tour as vice president of the Babson Alumni Association in June, and I expect to continue as a coach with the Coaching for Leadership and Teamwork Program. I have enjoyed the opportunities. Happy summer to all!”

1962 50th Reunion
Dan Singer emailed in February from Tucson, Ariz., “My wife of 48 years and I are trying to complete our bucket list. We leave for Dubai, United Arab Emirates, on April 4. We then take a 12-day cruise to India, return to Dubai, and visit Petra, Jordan. Usually, we spend five days per month in Coronado, Calif. Golfing and visiting our six grandchil- dren take the rest of our time. After 70, it becomes more important to enjoy life.”

Paul Slosberg writes from Lecan-to, Fla., “Last year, I received the Rotary’s Service Above Self Award. It is the highest honor bestowed on Rotarians by Rotary International. In 2009, I received the Rotary’s Distinguished Service Award, the highest recognition given by the Rotary Foundation.”

UNDERGRAD NEWS

1972 40th Reunion
Rudolph Crew, H’96, has been named president of Revolution K12, the software division of Revolution Prep, an educational services company that helps students improve academic skills. The former superintendent of the Miami-Dade County [Fla.] Public Schools system and former chancellor of New York City’s public schools, he is a professor of clinical education at the Rossier School of Education at the University of Southern California.

1974
Dave Ratner was elected to the board of directors of the National Re- tail Federation during its 101st Annual Convention and Expo in New York City. Dave is founder and president of Dave’s Soda & Pet City (davesodaandpetcity.com), headquartered in Agawam, Mass. The business has five stores in western Massachusetts and one in Stafford Springs, Conn.

1982 30th Reunion
Jay Nichols, P’11, has been named CEO at Axis Re, a subsidiary of Axis Capital Holdings Ltd., a Bermuda-based global provider of insurance and reinsurance. He also is a member of Axis Capital’s executive committee. Previously, he was president at RenaissanceRe Ventures Ltd., which he joined in 1995.

1985
Rick Blackshaw has been appointed president of the Keds brand at the Collective Brands Performance + Lifestyle Group in Lexington, Mass. Previously, he was vice president and general manager of the Chuck Taylor All Star division at Converse Inc.

1986
Jeffrey Brown is the founder of Brown’s Super Stores and a board member of Wakefern Food Corp. He was featured in an article, “Our Food Heroes Are Out There,” posted on examiner.com on Dec. 29. The article’s author, Rachel Greenberger, MBA’11, writes, “Brown has been building his grocery fleet inside some

1987
Jeffrey Brown is the founder of Brown’s Super Stores and a board member of Wakefern Food Corp. He was featured in an article, “Our Food Heroes Are Out There,” posted on examiner.com on Dec. 29. The article’s author, Rachel Greenberger, MBA’11, writes, “Brown has been building his grocery fleet inside some Michael Bastian ’87 has been named the 2011 Menswear Designer of the Year by the Council of Fashion Designers of America. Michael (in a Babson T-shirt) is on the runway at the showing of the spring/summer 2012 collection of his eponymous menswear line (michaelbastiannyc.com). The collection was revealed during New York City’s Fashion Week in September. He also collaborates with Gant, where he has revived the fashion house with his Gant by Michael Bastian menswear and women’s wear collections.

August. He helps direct all business activities at the Stowe, VT, company, which includes hotel, brewery, and recreation facilities, as well as real estate holdings. Previously, he was vice president and director of real estate development at Stowe Mountain Resort. He also is director and president of the nonprofit Spruce Peak Arts Center Foundation, which operates a theater in Stowe.

1988 Scott Poulin is director, sales and marketing at Wescott Financial Advisory Group in Miami. He emails, “Wescott has been named one of the best wealth advisers in the Palm Beach, Broward, and Miami-Dade market by the National Association of Board Certified Advisory Practices. The firm was one of 54 identified as ‘premier’ in the South Florida Business Journal on Nov. 18. Of those, Wescott was one of only two named ‘exemplary’ in financial planning.”

1989 Steve Kendrick was featured in an article, “Customer Service Leads Way in Competitive Climate for Homebuilder Kendrick,” posted on postandcourier.com on March 17. Steve is owner and founder of Structures Building Co. (structures.net) in Charleston, S.C. The remodeling division of the company is called Re-Structure and specializes in whole-house renovations and additions.

1990 Chris Guiffre has been appointed senior vice president and chief business officer at Cerulean Pharmaceuticals Inc., a biopharmaceutical company.

Ruvan Rodriguez is a financial adviser and senior vice president in the Boston office of Morgan Stanley Smith Barney, where he runs The Rodriguez Group. He was featured in a Feb. 24 profile, “Wellesley Resident Is Both Family Man and Entrepreneur,” in The Wellesley Townsman. Ruvan and his wife, Cate, live in Wellesley with their three daughters.

1991 Maria (Tagliente) Marshall emails,

“Got News?” Alumni News is in demand! To accommodate news and photos from as many alumni as possible, please limit entries to 75 words and photo captions to 100 words.

Babson Magazine has two requirements for Alumni News photos: the submitting alum- nus must be in the picture, and the image must be at least 4 x 6 inches at 300 dpi—no digital alterations, please. We can’t promise that all submitted photos will run, but we’ll include as many as possible. (See the Weddings page for wedding photo requirements.) Please email all news to the Alumni News editor at alumnews@babson.edu.

Chuck Scott ’85 emails, “My wife, Katie, and I (left); Roger Lerrick ’87 and his wife, Emi (center); and Steve Rapillo, MBA’84, and his wife, Jeannie, with children Brian and Victoria (right) got together on New Year’s Day at Roger’s mom’s house in Chappaqua, N.Y. Steve continues to grow his family’s business, Tufo’s Whole- sale Foods (tufosfoods.com), in New York City, and Roger is leveraging his CPA and financial expertise in solar and alternative energy in California. I continue to be a digital troublemaker, wielding WordPress multisite network architecture expertise and occasion- ally hanging out at ChuckingIt.com.”

Richard Goldberg ’89 emails, “I’m excited to share some good news with my Babson friends. Continuing my family’s 58-year tradition as owners of Marshall’s Jewelers in Milford, Mass., I opened a second jewelry store in Bellingham in March 2011. I completed the move of my family’s original store to a new location in Milford this March. Drop by when you’re in the area and check us out at marshallsjewelers.com."

“My husband and I have been living in Southern California since 2006, and we have three children, 10, 6, and 1. Bruce and I own and operate A Road Bike 4U, a bicycle business that caters to high-performance cyclists and triathletes. We have a brick-and- mortar shop in Irvine and a website, aroabike4u.com.

Eduardo Tabush was elected treasurer of the board of directors of Habitat for Humanity International in February. He has been involved with Habitat for Humanity Guatemala since 1998 and lives in Guatemala City with his wife, Amanda, and their two children. A serial entrepre- neur, he is owner and CEO of Meri- tage Assets Corp., which owns Joomlashack.

1993 Max Silbershatz has been appointed director of wireless services at New York City-based Metropolitan Telecommunications. Before joining Met- Tel, he was senior vice president for business development at IDT Corp.

“Babson prepared me for a successful career. I still have goals I want to reach, and one of them is giving back so others can have the opportunities I had.”

– Stuart Goldstein ’76

As you plan for your future, consider making a planned gift to Babson. You can make a larger impact than you may have thought possible while providing you and your family with income and tax benefits. Ask us how.

Babson Magazine
Patrick Walsh ’99 (left) is vice president, marketing at Villa, a Philadelphia-based fashion retailer. He emails, “Last fall, I launched the Dream Project, an inner-city youth initiative. For the inaugural event, I assembled 70 executives, most of them black or Latino, including some Babson alums. Representing companies such as Nike, Twitter, Timberland, American Express, and the NBA, they shared their stories with students. I’m shown with three kids from Philadelphia’s Benjamin Franklin High School, the event host.” Patrick was featured in an article, “Dream Project’ Brings Biz Mentors to Youths,” in the Nov. 10 Philadelphia Tribune. Contact Patrick at pwalsh2004@gmail.com.

Annamarie Latta ’06 emails, “Jeremy Monken (from left), Shaun Greene ’08, myself, and Geoffrey Anderson ’08 co-founded Gold Pieces for Child’s Play (gp4cp.org), a nonprofit that raises funds to provide video games, game systems, and other donations to hospitalized children. We held our third annual fundraiser in December at the Microsoft New England Research and Development Center in Cambridge, Mass. The event featured video, board, and tabletop games. Over the years, we have raised more than $7,500. Email us at info@gp4cp.org if you want to join the fun!”

2005 William Rudolph and Sari Gilbert were married on Dec. 31 at the Kernwood Country Club in Salem, Mass., where the couple lives. Sari works for the Salem Public Schools, and William works for Harbor Management.

Margaret Schlachter blogs daily at dirtinyourskirt.com. Her blog, Dirt in Your Skirt, was named Best Sports Weblog 2012 by the 12th annual Weblog Awards.

2006 Lisa Chin and William Droge are engaged to be married in August. Lisa is a marketing director at Jill’s List, and William is a senior investment analyst at John Hancock. The couple lives in Boston.

Noah Rosenberg is co-founder and CEO of Get-In LLC. He emails, “To help improve an individual’s college application, Get-In uses crowdsourcing to harness the insight of students at that particular college. Applicants receive a peer-generated report with comments and suggested improvements. I am reaching out to the Babson community for reaction because we have just launched. Check us out at get-in.com or email me at noah.rosenberg@get-in.com for more information.”

2007 5th Reunion Forbes Marsh emails from New York City, “I now am an account executive at startup SocialVibe. The company offers a way for brands to reach, engage, and spread messages to customers through audiences seeking a value exchange in return for access to social games, applications, and premium content. We work with such partners as FarmVille, Mafia Wars, Facebook, Pandora, and more.”

Valentine Moroz is COO of SoftInWay Inc. (softinway.com), a Burlington, Mass.-based company founded by his father in 1999. The company provides the high-tech community with software products and engineering services for power generation equipment. Valentine was interviewed for an article, “SoftInWay Launches Software, Seeks Startups to Incubate,” in Mass High Tech on March 15. He will work at the company’s new office in Zug, Switzerland.

2008 Ben Chudnovskiy is founder and managing partner of spyRealty.com, an online real estate marketplace launched in January. He emails, “We deliver expert real estate advice and negotiating power with a 2 percent cash refund of the final purchase price to buyers who value the freedom of attending open houses unaccompanied by a broker. SpyRealty operates in Massachusetts, New York, New Hampshire, and Vermont, and we plan to expand our network. For more information, contact me at ben@spyrealty.com.”

Matthew Hancock was featured in an article, “Congressional Candidate Says He’ll Use the Power of the Internet to Campaign,” in Foster’s Daily Democrat on March 3. Matthew is a democratic candidate for the U.S. House of Representatives in New Hampshire’s 1st Congressional District. He emails, “I’m leveraging social media and integrating it into the website I developed, mh2012.com, to increase accessibility, encourage discussion, and enhance my interactions with voters.”

2009 Darius Esram emails, “I’m the events and social media coordinator at North Hill, a senior-living community adjacent to the Babson campus. Last fall, North Hill inaugurated True North, an initiative to expand services and experiences for residents, as well as members of the greater community. We released our first courses and events catalog, which offers free courses on varied topics such as world religions and horticulture. For more information, contact me at deslam@northhill.org.”

Send your news and photos to alumnews@babson.edu
ALUMNI NEWS

Andrew Kitzenberg is founder and president of Memory on Hand, which makes USB flash drive wristbands. He emails, “With Memory On Hand growing quickly, I partnered with Jeff Brayer, vice president for sales and marketing, and we haven’t looked back. MoH Bands are sold in more than 150 school bookstores and 300-plus retail locations, but the best place to purchase them is on memoryonhand.com.” Andrew can be contacted at andrew@memoryonhand.com for more information.

2010 Carmela Alvarez has been named one of the 2012 Young Global Shapers by the World Economic Forum. The mayor of San Vicente, Philippines, she was among nine young Filipinos chosen for the honor by the WEF, which invited only three of those individuals, including Carmela, to its conference in Davos, Switzerland.

Alex Moazed is CEO, president, and founder of Manhattan-based Applico (applicoinc.com), which designs and develops custom mobile apps. He and his company were featured in a cover story, “Upwardly Mobile,” in the February issue of Greenwich magazine.

Aron Schwarzkopf is co-founder and CEO of Leaf (leaf.me) in Cambridge, Mass. The startup was featured in an article, “Leaf Adds Brains, and Conversation, into Paying with a Credit Card,” in the Dec. 1 issue of the Boston Business Journal. During retail purchases, Leaf aims to give consumers more options, such as the ability to decline a paper receipt, give feedback after a purchase, or donate a portion of the transaction to a charity of the consumer’s choice.

2011 John Xie is CTO, chief marketing officer, and co-founder of Minus.com, a universal file-sharing platform. He and the company were featured in an article, “Meet the 22-Year-Old Serial Entrepreneur Behind a File-Sharing Service with $1 Million in VC,” posted on Entrepreneur.com on Feb. 2.

2012 Stephanie Yoe emails, “With help from Antonio Cairo, Prasanna Devadoss, and Anushka Kassim, I directed and produced Ideo Generation Babson College, now on YouTube, so alumni and prospective students can see today’s Babson. The music team—Cheol Lee ‘13, Kwaku Abankorh ‘13, Matthew Vacaro ‘14, and professor Robert Kopp—composed two songs for the video. And President Len Schlesinger, Dean Dennis Hanno, and several professors star in it.” For information, contact Stephanie at syoe1@babson.edu.

GRAD NEWS

1968 Joe McKane has joined Harborside Realty in Marblehead, Mass., as a sales associate. Previously, he was director of sales for the North Shore Navigators, a collegiate summer baseball team based in Lynn.

1971 Peter Chick, P’92, has been named to the board of directors of Rehabilitative Resources Inc. (RRI), a Sturbridge, Mass.-based, not-for-profit corporation. RRI began in 1975 as South Central Rehabilitative Resources Inc., with two group homes for people with developmental disabilities. The agency changed its name in 1999.

1974 John Stoddart was profiled in an article, “Ely’s Stoddart Became Chief over All Military Trucks,” in The Ely (Nev.) Times on Dec. 12. As a colonel in the Army, he was responsible for all trucks for the Department of Defense from 1990 until he retired in 1995. He then worked for the Oshkosh Truck Corp. and retired as president of the company’s defense division in 2009.

1976 Rob Hurlbert emails, “With the Department of State for 21 years, I am a program manager in the public affairs strategic communications section at the U.S. Embassy in Kabul, Afghanistan. I oversee several multimillion-dollar communications infrastructure projects, notably the construction of media towers. While the typical embassy public affairs section might award grants for media production, we also build capacity to enable broadcasting to rural areas. This tour, with extensive in-country travel, has been challenging and rewarding.”

1983 John Donahue has been named CEO of Brentwood, Tenn.-based Cogent HMG, a provider of critical care services. He has more than 25 years of health-care experience, including nine years as president and CEO of National Imaging Associates, a radiology benefit management firm he founded in 1997 and sold to Magellan Health Services in 2006. He also is a member of the board of Medicals Inc.
Jane Cleland, MBA’78, emails, “Dolled Up for Murder, the seventh book in my Josie Prescott Antiques Mystery series (jancleland.net), was published in March. The mystery is a tale of rare dolls, the Civil War, and obsession. And a cat named Hank.” The first book in the series, Consigned to Death, was published in 2006.

Michael Brener, MBA’92, a financial adviser at Merrill Lynch in Aventura, Fla., has been listed as one of America’s Top 1,000 Advisers in the Feb. 20 issue of Barron’s. This is Michael’s third appearance on the list. Approximately 65 percent of his clients are in Latin America, with the remainder in Florida and across the U.S. He has a CIMA (certified investment management analyst) designation from the Investment Management Consultants Association.

1984
Alan Oppenheim has been appointed a member of the board of Saratoga Care Inc. in Saratoga Springs, N.Y. He is president of ACO Property Advisors Inc. (acopropertyadvisors.com), a commercial real estate firm he founded in 1993. Alan also serves on the board of directors of the Saratoga Regional YMCA.

1988
David Bois has been named COO at Verrill Dana, a Portland, Maine-based law firm with offices in Washington, D.C.; Boston; Hartford, Conn.; and Augusta, Maine. Previously, he was the firm’s executive director.

Andrew Zarnett spoke in March at the 2012 iGaming North America conference in Las Vegas. The conference discussed the potential of legalized Internet gambling. Andrew is a managing director at Deutsche Bank; where he is a gaming, lodging, and leisure high-yield debt analyst. He is also co-head of high-yield research at the bank and a member of the executive committee of its leverage debt group.

1989
Patrick Scannell has been appointed president and CEO of GlassHouse Technologies in Framingham, Mass. The company provides consulting and managed services for data centers. A member of the board of directors at GlassHouse, he also is a board member at Kiva Systems and Xtical. Previously, he was senior vice president, CFO, and treasurer at Netzeza.

1990
Sheri Ayers Trochi has joined J. Barrett & Co., a real estate firm serving the Cape Ann and North Shore areas of Massachusetts. She is a full-time real estate agent in the company’s Beverly Farms office.

1991
Bruno Chabas joined SBM Offshore as COO in May 2011 and became CEO in January 2012. A Dutch public company, SBM Offshore is the holding company of a group of international marine technology businesses in the offshore oil and gas industry. Before joining SBM, Bruno worked at Acergy, now Subsea 7, for 18 years, most recently as COO.

1992 20th Reunion
Mike Healey is founder and president of Yeoman Technologies (yeomantechnologies.com), a Portsmouth, N.H., company that helps manufacturers, developers, and publishers with Internet sales and distribution models. He also is a senior contributing editor and analyst for InformationWeek, and he writes about cloud and Internet developments. In February, Mike presented at Yeoman’s third annual webinar review of Internet sales and distribution trends, which is designed for B2B organizations and manufacturers.

1993
Larry Hughes, P’07, was profiled in an article, “Local Boy Makes Good: Somerville’s Own Larry Hughes CEO of BNY Mellon Wealth Management,” in the March 2 issue of the Boston Business Journal. Larry was CFO of private client business at The Boston Co., which was acquired by Mellon in 1993. Mellon subsequently merged with The Bank of New York.

2000
Andres Bernal Correa has been named finance officer and strategy at Grupo de Inversiones Suramericana SA, a new sub-holding company of Grupo Sura. Previously, he was CFO and vice president for finance and investment at Grupo Sura, which he joined in 2004.

2001
Guillermo Montano is president and co-founder of Transactel (transactel.com), a business call-center company headquartered in Guatemala City, Guatemala. The company was featured in an article, “Call Centres that Are Closer to Home,” in the Feb. 21 Financial Times. Transactel’s clients include U.S. and Canadian companies, which reportedly benefit not only from Guatemala’s proximity to North America but also from the country’s close ties with U.S. culture and the fact that Guatemala is on Central Standard Time.

2002 10th Reunion
John Corrieri has been appointed vice president of Mutual of Omaha’s 401(k) product. He supports retirement advisers, plan participants, and plan sponsors. Previously, he was marketing leader for the institutional retirement group at Genworth Financial in Richmond, Va.

Joe Bardenheier, MBA’98 (left), is part of a volunteer team that runs the Free Surgical Camp (freesurgicalcamp.com) every January in Khammam, India. He emails, “The medical mission serves the poor at St. Mary’s Hospital, built by the British in the late 1800s. I am shown in the post-op hallway with a few patients and their families. The team of three U.S. doctors, including my father, Dr. Joe Bardenheier III, and other U.S. and India-based volunteers, conducted more than 900 examinations and 230 operations in 11 days.” Joe is senior vice president, corporate development at Endurance International Group in Burlington, Mass.

Deborah Hardison, MSA’98, is director of the Small Business Center at Richmond Community College in Hamlet, N.C. She emails, “The center supports the development of new businesses and the growth of existing businesses; it’s a community-based resource for counseling, training, and planning. I enjoy my work because it’s a culmination of everything I’ve learned, paired with the social component of helping people.” Deborah was featured in an article, “NETC [Northeastern Technical College] Alumna Builds a Lifetime of Achievement on a Dare for a Degree,” in the Feb. 2 Richmond County Daily Journal.

We want to hear from you! Send your suggestions, submissions, and letters to: Editor, Babson Magazine; Babson College; Babson Park, MA 02457-0310; alumnnews@babson.edu; 781-239-5256. PLEASE NOTE: Babson Magazine reserves the right to edit news. No engagement or baby photos. News and photos may be used on Babson’s website.
1. Kim Nguyen and Chris Colli, both ’05, were married on April 2, 2011, in Marco Island, Fla. Twenty alumni attended the event, including bridesmaids Kristin (Lovett) Berg and Whitney Robbins, groomsmen Matt Walsh and Jim Burke, and attendants Michael Restivo, Jennifer Sanchez, and Katie Erickson, all ’05. The couple lives in Simsbury, Conn. Chris is broker/owner of Chestnut Oak Associates, a real estate brokerage, where Kim is marketing and operations manager.

2. Amanda Frier and Alex Kelley, both ’03, were married on Oct. 8 at the Turner Hill Country Club in Ipswich, Mass. Among the guests were 25 alumni, including wedding party members Cara (Campo) O’Regan, Alyson Yablonskie, Kathryn (Simmons) Shilling, Kevin Shane, and Jason Highland, all ’03. The couple lives in Waltham.

3. Gina Rosano ’00, MBA’06, and Edward Zalewski, MBA’08, were married on Oct. 29 in Hingham, Mass. Gina emails, “Alumni at the wedding included maid of honor Maureen (Murphy) Badura ’00 and wedding guests Jackie Regan ’00, Sandy Estrada ’00, and Denise Kidd Kaminsky ’81, MBA’07. Having our friends from Babson join us really helped make it a special day!” The couple lives in Cohasset.

4. Bob Weisse ’04 was married to Katherine Toy on Oct. 8 at the Codman Estate in Lincoln, Mass. The guests included Rick Deveney, Phil McGinnis, Jeff Heighington, Dave Ballas, Jim Battista, Matt Bigda, and Andrew Gallinaro, all ’04. Katherine is a consultant at PwC, and Bob is director of portfolio management at Heritage Financial Services.

5. David Garten ’85 (center, right) and Paul Sherman were married on July 9 at Fox Chair Mountain Farm in Chester, Vt. David emails, “The perfect summer day along with 130 family and friends made our outdoor wedding truly magical. Babson friends included Megan (Walsh) Mooney ’85, Rich Stone ’86, P’10, Bill Lestan ’85, MBA’96, David Sutton ’85, and Dave Theriault ’85.” The couple lives in Boston’s South End.

6. Katie Brown, MBA’08, and Tim Seamans, MBA’09, were married on July 9 at an outdoor wedding in Northeast Harbor, Maine. Friends at the event included (front, from left) Mark Massaro, MBA’09, John Hose, MBA’09, the groom and bride, Andrea Wolf Beagan, MBA’08, Colleen Connolly, MBA’08; (back) Nava Cretu Kessel, MBA’09, Kristin Lorenzo, MBA’08, Nish Murthy, MBA’09, Jeff Layton, MBA’09, Nurit Bloom, MBA’09, Ursula Liff, MBA’09, Martin Lewit, MBA’08, Sarah Mosbacher, MBA’09, and Gil Allouche, MBA’09.

7. Robin Manoukian ’01 and Kevin Ryan were married on July 16 in Key West, Fla., where they had met. Family and friends joined them for a beach ceremony at Fort Zachary Taylor State Park, followed by a reception at the Old Town Manor. Guests included matron of honor Kim (Tulman) Healy ’01, Kevin Healy ’99, MBA’08, and Laura (Kimball) Dassow ’99. Robin and Kevin live in the Boston area.

8. Daniel Cowan ’08 was married to Ellen MacLeod on Oct. 8 in Rockland, Mass. Dan emails, “Eleven alumni attended our wedding. After Babson, I moved to Phoenix to work for Athletes’ Performance, where I met Ellen, a Massachusetts native. We moved back East in February 2010 and bought a house in Rockland. I continue to work for Athletes’ Performance as marketing manager, and Ellen is a teacher at My Gym Children’s Fitness Center in Norwell.”

---

Weddings

---

Babson Magazine requires good-size, high-resolution digital photos, at least 4 x 6-inch images at 300 dpi. Please keep wedding captions under 75 words. Email your photo and caption to alumnews@babson.edu. Mail traditional prints to Alumni News Editor, Babson Magazine, Babson College, Babson Park, MA 02457.

If you have photo questions, contact the Alumni News editor at alumnews@babson.edu or 781-239-4269.

Are you on Pinterest? Pin your wedding or baby pictures to our boards! Find us at pinterest.com/babsoncollege.
THIS YEAR, IT REALLY IS UP TO YOU.

www.babson.edu/directyourgift

DIRECT YOUR GIFT. DEFINE OUR FUTURE. THE FUND FOR BABSON.

---

Momchilova, MBA’11, is marketing coordinator. The company won first place and $10,000 in the Technology Track category of Worcester [Mass.] Polytechnic Institute’s 2011 Venture Forum Business Plan Contest in November.

Maria Shepherd has joined the investment committee of MSBI Valoration, an early-stage accelerator in Montreal. She assists MSBV in assessing technologies. Maria is the founder of Lincoln, Mass.-based Data Decision Group (ddecision group.com), a marketing strategy consulting firm that works exclusively in the medical devices and life sciences industries. The firm also offers traditional market research and interim marketing services. Contact Maria at mshepherd@ddecisiongroup.com.

Saqib Syed has been named one of the 50 Most Influential People in New England by India New England newspaper. The list honors those whose work, effort, or influence benefits New England’s South Asian community. Also listed is Raghu Tadepalli, Murata Dean, F.W. Olin Graduate School of Business. Saqib is managing principal and founder of PredictSoft LLC; a charter member of TIE Boston, a nonprofit organization; and an adviser to Boston Meridian, an investment bank.

2003

Havell Rodrigues is CFO at Greenbean Recycle, a software technology startup that works to increase recycling. He also is a member of its board of directors, and Kristina Momchilova, MBA’11, is marketing coordinator. The company won first place and $10,000 in the Technology Track category of Worcester [Mass.] Polytechnic Institute’s 2011 Venture Forum Business Plan Contest in November.

Maria Shepherd has joined the investment committee of MSBI Valoration, an early-stage accelerator in Montreal. She assists MSBV in assessing technologies. Maria is the founder of Lincoln, Mass.-based Data Decision Group (ddecision group.com), a marketing strategy consulting firm that works exclusively in the medical devices and life sciences industries. The firm also offers traditional market research and interim marketing services. Contact Maria at mshepherd@ddecisiongroup.com.

Saqib Syed has been named one of the 50 Most Influential People in New England by India New England newspaper. The list honors those whose work, effort, or influence benefits New England’s South Asian community. Also listed is Raghu Tadepalli, Murata Dean, F.W. Olin Graduate School of Business. Saqib is managing principal and founder of PredictSoft LLC; a charter member of TIE Boston, a nonprofit organization; and an adviser to Boston Meridian, an investment bank.

2003

Havell Rodrigues is CFO at Greenbean Recycle, a software technology startup that works to increase recycling. He also is a member of its board of directors, and Kristina Momchilova, MBA’11, is marketing coordinator. The company won first place and $10,000 in the Technology Track category of Worcester [Mass.] Polytechnic Institute’s 2011 Venture Forum Business Plan Contest in November.

Maria Shepherd has joined the investment committee of MSBI Valoration, an early-stage accelerator in Montreal. She assists MSBV in assessing technologies. Maria is the founder of Lincoln, Mass.-based Data Decision Group (ddecision group.com), a marketing strategy consulting firm that works exclusively in the medical devices and life sciences industries. The firm also offers traditional market research and interim marketing services. Contact Maria at mshepherd@ddecisiongroup.com.

Saqib Syed has been named one of the 50 Most Influential People in New England by India New England newspaper. The list honors those whose work, effort, or influence benefits New England’s South Asian community. Also listed is Raghu Tadepalli, Murata Dean, F.W. Olin Graduate School of Business. Saqib is managing principal and founder of PredictSoft LLC; a charter member of TIE Boston, a nonprofit organization; and an adviser to Boston Meridian, an investment bank.

2003

Havell Rodrigues is CFO at Greenbean Recycle, a software technology startup that works to increase recycling. He also is a member of its board of directors, and Kristina Momchilova, MBA’11, is marketing coordinator. The company won first place and $10,000 in the Technology Track category of Worcester [Mass.] Polytechnic Institute’s 2011 Venture Forum Business Plan Contest in November.

Maria Shepherd has joined the investment committee of MSBI Valoration, an early-stage accelerator in Montreal. She assists MSBV in assessing technologies. Maria is the founder of Lincoln, Mass.-based Data Decision Group (ddecision group.com), a marketing strategy consulting firm that works exclusively in the medical devices and life sciences industries. The firm also offers traditional market research and interim marketing services. Contact Maria at mshepherd@ddecisiongroup.com.

Saqib Syed has been named one of the 50 Most Influential People in New England by India New England newspaper. The list honors those whose work, effort, or influence benefits New England’s South Asian community. Also listed is Raghu Tadepalli, Murata Dean, F.W. Olin Graduate School of Business. Saqib is managing principal and founder of PredictSoft LLC; a charter member of TIE Boston, a nonprofit organization; and an adviser to Boston Meridian, an investment bank.

2003

Havell Rodrigues is CFO at Greenbean Recycle, a software technology startup that works to increase recycling. He also is a member of its board of directors, and Kristina Momchilova, MBA’11, is marketing coordinator. The company won first place and $10,000 in the Technology Track category of Worcester [Mass.] Polytechnic Institute’s 2011 Venture Forum Business Plan Contest in November.

Maria Shepherd has joined the investment committee of MSBI Valoration, an early-stage accelerator in Montreal. She assists MSBV in assessing technologies. Maria is the founder of Lincoln, Mass.-based Data Decision Group (ddecision group.com), a marketing strategy consulting firm that works exclusively in the medical devices and life sciences industries. The firm also offers traditional market research and interim marketing services. Contact Maria at mshepherd@ddecisiongroup.com.

Saqib Syed has been named one of the 50 Most Influential People in New England by India New England newspaper. The list honors those whose work, effort, or influence benefits New England’s South Asian community. Also listed is Raghu Tadepalli, Murata Dean, F.W. Olin Graduate School of Business. Saqib is managing principal and founder of PredictSoft LLC; a charter member of TIE Boston, a nonprofit organization; and an adviser to Boston Meridian, an investment bank.

2003

Havell Rodrigues is CFO at Greenbean Recycle, a software technology startup that works to increase recycling. He also is a member of its board of directors, and Kristina Momchilova, MBA’11, is marketing coordinator. The company won first place and $10,000 in the Technology Track category of Worcester [Mass.] Polytechnic Institute’s 2011 Venture Forum Business Plan Contest in November.

Maria Shepherd has joined the investment committee of MSBI Valoration, an early-stage accelerator in Montreal. She assists MSBV in assessing technologies. Maria is the founder of Lincoln, Mass.-based Data Decision Group (ddecision group.com), a marketing strategy consulting firm that works exclusively in the medical devices and life sciences industries. The firm also offers traditional market research and interim marketing services. Contact Maria at mshepherd@ddecisiongroup.com.

Saqib Syed has been named one of the 50 Most Influential People in New England by India New England newspaper. The list honors those whose work, effort, or influence benefits New England’s South Asian community. Also listed is Raghu Tadepalli, Murata Dean, F.W. Olin Graduate School of Business. Saqib is managing principal and founder of PredictSoft LLC; a charter member of TIE Boston, a nonprofit organization; and an adviser to Boston Meridian, an investment bank.

2003

Havell Rodrigues is CFO at Greenbean Recycle, a software technology startup that works to increase recycling. He also is a member of its board of directors, and Kristina Momchilova, MBA’11, is marketing coordinator. The company won first place and $10,000 in the Technology Track category of Worcester [Mass.] Polytechnic Institute’s 2011 Venture Forum Business Plan Contest in November.

Maria Shepherd has joined the investment committee of MSBI Valoration, an early-stage accelerator in Montreal. She assists MSBV in assessing technologies. Maria is the founder of Lincoln, Mass.-based Data Decision Group (ddecision group.com), a marketing strategy consulting firm that works exclusively in the medical devices and life sciences industries. The firm also offers traditional market research and interim marketing services. Contact Maria at mshepherd@ddecisiongroup.com.

Saqib Syed has been named one of the 50 Most Influential People in New England by India New England newspaper. The list honors those whose work, effort, or influence benefits New England’s South Asian community. Also listed is Raghu Tadepalli, Murata Dean, F.W. Olin Graduate School of Business. Saqib is managing principal and founder of PredictSoft LLC; a charter member of TIE Boston, a nonprofit organization; and an adviser to Boston Meridian, an investment bank.

---

Bernard Lee, MBA’99 (left), and David Cohen ’95 (right) teamed up for a no-limit Texas Hold ’em charity tournament to benefit Playing It Forward (playingif.org), a nonprofit founded by David. More than $9,000 was raised for the organization, which distributes sports equipment to disadvantaged children worldwide. The Full House Charity Program, started by Bernard to support New England organizations that focus on children, helped organize the tournament. A professional poker player, author, and radio talk-show host, Bernard (bernardleepoker.com) donates $500 to his organization for every full house he is dealt in poker tournaments.

Miles Masci, MBA’11 (right), emails, “Nicolas Warren (left) and I co-founded Perfect Fuel Chocolate (perfectfuel chocolate.com) in Boston. While in the Peace Corps in 2006, I was assigned to Chipehamburgo, a cocoa-growing community in Ecuador, where I acquired a passion for chocolate. My Babson degree has allowed me to pursue my dream of developing a chocolate company. We offer an all-natural, low-sugar dark chocolate that is certified organic and sustainably produced. Because the chocolate includes supplements such as ginseng, it’s an effective snack for athletes. Bars can be purchased online and in retail stores. For more information, email miles@perfectfuelchocolate.com.”

---

Send your news and photos to alumnews@babson.edu
(azdencorp.com) in New York. At Babson, I studied family business, which has been a great help.”

Bob Sullivan is senior vice president at East Greenwich, R.I.-based Arpin Group, an international moving and storage company. He emails, “In December, I represented Team USA in a hockey tournament in Russia, where ‘hockey diplomacy’ is like playing golf in the U.S. This event brought together politicians, scientists, business leaders, and hockey legends. I am excited about a potential Moscow expansion for Arpin.” Bob is co-owner and co-founder of Arpin’s offices in London, Dublin, Frankfurt, Singapore, Hong Kong, and Shanghai.

2007 5th Reunion
Rattikorn Prichavongwaikul was featured in an article, “Media Makeover: Daughter of Onpa Founder Helps Business Navigate Shift Away from Cassettes and Discs to Providing Content Regardless of the Medium,” in the Jan. 24 Bangkok Post. Rattikorn’s father’s company, Onpa, made cassette tapes and discs but has struggled with digital media. She works at Onpa and has helped the company thrive by concentrating on quality content.

2009
Rob Banagale is co-founder of Gliph Inc. (gli.ph), a mobile-technology startup focused on secure communication. Rob emails, “Gliph was one of eight startups selected in March for the Portland [ Ore. ] Seed Fund business incubator. The incubator is backed by a $3 million public-private fund, which invests $25,000 in each business and mentors the entrepreneurs for three months. The Gliph app is available for iPhone and Android devices.” For more information, email rob@gli.ph.

Andy Fitzpatrick has joined the Boston office of First Republic Bank as managing director and business banker. He is part of a team that serves venture and private equity clients in the bank’s offices in Silicon Valley, San Francisco, Los Angeles, New York City, and Boston. Previously, he was a senior vice president at RBC Bank in Boston.

Brian Testarmata has joined Workers’ Credit Union as a mortgage loan officer. The credit union serves north central Massachusetts and is based in Fitchburg.

2010
Richard Enos co-founded StudyPoint (studypoint.com), formerly named StudySmart, in Boston in 1999. The company now offers one-to-one tutoring for students nationwide. In 2011, StudyPoint was on Inc. magazine’s list of the fastest-growing private companies in America for the fifth consecutive year and on the Boston Business Journal’s Pacesetters list of the Boston region’s fastest-growing private companies.

Dan Gustafson has joined the acquisitions department at Brookwood Financial Partners LLC, a real estate private equity firm in Beverly, Mass. Previously, he was a leasing representative at Linear Retail Properties.

2011
Kristina Momchilova is marketing coordinator at Greenbean Recycle, a startup that operates high-tech recycling machines. The company won first place and $10,000 in the Technology Track category of Worcester [ Mass. ] Polytechnic Institute’s 2011 Venture Forum Business Plan Contest. Greenbean also was featured in a Feb. 10 Boston Globe article, “The Social Network, Smaller,” which explained how social media brings together those with shared interests.

Havell Rodrigues, MBA’03, is Greenbean’s CFO and a member of its board of directors.

Caroline Murphy is director of operations at Brass Monkey Inc., a Boston-based gaming technology company. She emails, “In March, the MIT Enterprise Forum’s New England Games Special Interest Group gathered game marketing executives to share secrets and marketing tactics at Microsoft’s New England Research and Development Center in Cambridge. I participated in a panel and discussed how developers without large marketing budgets can bring their game directly to consumers.”

Bradley Sikora and Anna Erhard were married on June 4, 2011, on Sea Island, Ga. The bride is a senior account executive with Mullen Advertising Agency, and the groom works at Mercer Investments in Boston, where the couple lives.

Sanjiv Patel, MBA’02, is the founder of Dallas-based Holy Cow LLC, which offers a selection of seasoned peanuts. He emails, “It’s been a long year following the launch of the Lord Nut Levington peanut line in early 2011. However, so far, so good. We are now in around 300 stores across the country and about to launch our sixth flavor, Sweet Miss Keet. Living my own case study every day, but enjoying it so far. Check us out at lordnut.com. All in flavor—say yes!”

Rick Drumm, MBA’07, is president of D’Addario & Co., the Farmingdale, N.Y.-based maker of strings and accessories for musical instruments. He’s also a drummer. He and his group, Rick Drumm and Fatty Necroses, have released an album, Return from the Unknown. Rick emails, “The album covers the infancy of jazz fusion, performed with a contemporary sound. The names of the album and group are a nod to my survival of non-Hodgkin’s lymphoma. And 25 percent of all proceeds will be donated to the Strike A Chord foundation, which shares the gift of music with seriously ill and disadvantaged children.”

Larry Fitzmaurice ’59 (center), Babson Alumni Association vice president, represented the association at the annual President’s Scholarship Luncheon last fall in Knight Auditorium. The event was attended by more than 75 student recipients and scholarship donors. Babson Alumni Association Scholarship recipients Arber Mavraj (from left) and Imran Rashid, both ’14, joined Larry with fellow recipients David Zwick and Adam Karger, both MBA’12. Larry says, “Babson attracts the best and brightest applicants from around the world, and our community recognizes that some future entrepreneurs would be unable to consider a Babson experience without financial assistance.”
In Memoriam

Elizabeth Berestecky of Osterville, Mass., formerly of Needham, died on Jan. 27. She was an administrative assistant at Babson from 1985 until she retired in 1999.

Melvyn Copen of Sedona, Ariz., died on March 12. From 1981 to 1987, he was vice president for academic affairs at Babson. He earned a bachelor’s and a master’s from MIT, and a doctorate in international business at Babson. He earned a bachelor’s degree from Harvard Business School.

Robert Hillery ’51 of Orr’s Island, Maine, died on Aug. 10.

Dick Kirk ’51 of Wooster, Ohio, died on Dec. 24. He was an Air Force veteran. He founded Central Farm Supply and retired in 2011.

Victor Tomasso ’51 of Sea Ranch Lakes, Fla., died on Jan. 23. He served in the Navy during World War II. A life member of the Babson Corporation, he was CEO and chair of Buchanan Marine. He was predeceased by his brother, George Tomasso ’49. Tomasso Hall is named in honor of the family.

Paul Elliott ’52 of St. Petersburg, Fla., and West Dennis, Mass., died on Dec. 7.

Charles Webster ’53 of Cleveland died on Oct. 15. He was an Army veteran.

Donald Faerman ’54 of Stamford, Conn., died on Nov. 16. He was a financial planner in the New York City area.

Thomas Fry ’54 of West Chester, Pa., formerly of Reading, died on Jan. 23. He served in the Navy during World War II. He was president and owner of Dolfin Corp.

Charles Black ’55 of The Villages, Fla., formerly of Cumberland, R.I., died on March 9. He was an Army veteran. When he retired in 1992, he was properties manager at East Providence Credit Union.

Albert Hudon, MBA’55, of Montreal died on Jan. 10.

Paul Ferrari, MBA’56, of Hobbsound, Fla., formerly of Danvers, Mass., died on Dec. 19. He served in the Navy during the Korean War. He was treasurer at Thermo Electron Corp. He was predeceased by his brother, David Ferrari, MBA’64, P’92.

Edmund Bennett ’57 of Holden, Mass., died on Jan. 20. He was an Army veteran. He founded Bennett Consulting Inc. in 1991 and was an independent investment consultant. He leaves his grandson, Joshua Bennett ’14.

Konrad Gesner ’57 of Duxbury, Mass., died on Dec. 7. He was a Korean War veteran. He worked in real estate.

Bruce Munn, MBA’59, of Wachapreague, Va., died on Jan. 25. He was a Marine Corps veteran. He was racing secretary at the Harrington [Del.] Raceway when he retired in 2006.

John Quinton ’60 of Lisle, Ill., died on Jan. 15.

Warren Tourtellot ’60 of Lakewood, Pa., died on Dec. 9. He served in the Navy during the Cuban Missile Crisis. When he retired, he was vice president at a medical publishing company.

Thomas Wheelen, MBA’61, of Tampa, Fla., died on Dec. 24. He was a Navy veteran. He earned a DBA from The George Washington University and was a professor of strategic management at the University of South Florida from 1983 to 2005.

Richard Perley ’62 of Laconia, N.H., died on Jan. 17. He owned the local Dairy Queen and a children’s clothing store.

Michael Bellobuono ’63 of Wethersfield, Conn., died on Feb. 18. He served in the National Guard. An attorney, he co-founded the law offices of McBane, Bellobuono, Kuzmak, Wiezalis, and Bibisi in Hartford. He also co-owned the First & Last Tavern in Middletown. He leaves his sons, Michael Bellobuono ’91 and Jonathan Bellobuono ’98.

Daniel Harris ’64 of Hampton Bays, N.Y., died on Dec. 29. An Episcopal priest, he had been a fire chaplain since 1973.

Charles England, MBA’65, of Tilton, N.H., formerly of Manchester, died on Feb. 25. He was an Army veteran. He was director of railroad operations for the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority.

Charles Blaser, MBA’66, of Warren ton, Va., died on July 30. A retired Army lieutenant colonel, he served for 26 years and completed two tours in Korea and one in Iran.

Thomas Moore, MBA’70, of South Yarmouth, Mass., died on Nov. 18. He served in the Navy during World War II. He was treasurer at the William Carter Co. in Needham. He leaves his sons, Daniel Moore ’83 and William Moore ’92.

Mark Salowitz ’72 of East Hampton, Conn., died on Dec. 5. A CPA, he worked at Case, Corrado, Yazmer & Co. in East Hartford.

Norman Isabelle, MBA’74, of Palm Bay, Fla., died on Feb. 26. He was an industrial engineering manager at Honeywell and Digital Equipment Corp.

Merton Round, MBA’74, of St. Augustine, Fla., and Raymond, Maine, died on Feb. 4. He was an Army veteran. A CPA, he was CFO at Kingsize Inc. in Brockton, Mass.

Richard Day ’78 of Rochester, N.Y., formerly of Hamilton, Mass., died on Dec. 30. He was a chef.

Joel Beck, MBA’79, of Arundel, Maine, died on March 16. He was a Marine Corps veteran. After a 35-year career at Honeywell, he taught at the University of Southern Maine School of Business for eight years.

Nina Clinton, MBA’79, of Hull, Mass., died on Nov. 15. She worked in agricultural investments at John Hancock Financial Services.

Scott Coulter, MBA’84, of Lakeville, Mass., died on Dec. 22.

Barry Shea ’85 of Mansfield, Mass., died on Nov. 28. A CPA, he was an internal auditor.