

CALL FOR PAPERS

DIANA INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH CONFERENCE 2023

14th DIANA INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH CONFERENCE (DIRC) AND IMPACT DAY
Babson College, Wellesley, Massachusetts, USA

June 3-6, 2023

The conference theme is “Women's Entrepreneurship: Exploring Diversity of Experiences and Impact.” Recent scholarship has acknowledged that there is significant heterogeneity and diversity in women's entrepreneurship. Building on this new reality, the 2023 Conference seeks conceptual and empirical papers that consider the diversity of women's entrepreneurship with regards to context, processes and individuals.

KEY DIRC DATES

Abstract Submission Deadline
January 31, 2023

Acceptance Notification
March 24, 2023

Optional "Best Paper Award"
Entry: Full Paper Deadline
May 2, 2023

Conference & Impact Day
June 3-6, 2023

ABSTRACT GUIDELINES

- A two-page, maximum 900-word abstract, to include; Principal Topic, Method, and Results, should be submitted online to bit.ly/dirc2023 no later than January 31, 2023. Abstracts will be double-blind reviewed.
- Authors will be notified via email in March 2023 regarding reviewer decisions on their abstract.
- The full and final paper for those who wish to be considered for a Best Paper Award will be due in May 2023.

IMPACT DAY

- An interactive conversation and engaging speakers is scheduled for June 6, 2023.

Co-sponsored by the Entrepreneurship and Small Business Research Institute (ESBRI) and the International Journal of Gender and Entrepreneurship