Division of Learner Success and Campus Life

Leslie Chiu

Director, BabsonARTS

4 years at Babson

"I am proud to be a part of Learner Success and Campus Life where there is such a fierce commitment to the student experience and understanding that while it isn't always easy or smooth the key is to embrace the process. The best part of my job is continually discovering and supporting the many creative, artistic, and talented students at Babson."

Sarah DeMeo

Assistant Director, Housing and Dining Operations

2.5 years at Babson

"I love working at Babson because the Entrepreneurial Thought and Action (ET&A) methodology permeates the entire campus. As a staff member I am empowered to use ET&A to support the student experience, allowing me to adapt to the changing needs of our students."

Patrick Hale

Director, Multicultural and Identity Programs

1 year at Babson

"Being part of the Learner Success and Campus Life team at Babson is a true joy and privilege. I get to work with and learn from committed professionals who know what being of service to students means and who care about their success, wellbeing, and sense of home."

Caroline Hayes

Sr. Associate Director, Undergraduate CCD

10 years at Babson

"Love What You Do, Do What You Love is something we say a lot working in the Undergraduate CCD. I love having the opportunity to guide students on their career journey, helping them to explore and discover their career interests, and prepare them for their next steps in a future professional career."

Eric Neely

Head Coach, Volleyball

10 years at Babson

"I love working at Babson because the entire community embraces an entrepreneurial approach that matches my teaching style perfectly. Babson students are amazing learners who are not afraid of mistakes and they see failure as part of the process of growth. I love that what they learn in the classroom mirrors what I'm teaching them on the volleyball team."

Denicia Ratley

Director, Religious and Spiritual Life

4 years at Babson

"I love working at Babson because I get to build relationships with students, colleagues, and alums. I am often reminded of how blessed I am during the sacred and life giving moments of walking with individuals through life's big questions, crisis, and celebrations."
