Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

1. You have the right to cancel your agreement for a program of instruction, without any penalty or obligations, through attendance at the first class session or the seventh calendar day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation of this agreement can occur up to:

WITHDRAWAL FROM THE PROGRAM

Any student who wishes to withdraw from the College must notify the Office of Graduate Programs in writing and schedule an appointment with the appropriate program adviser of his or her program. Students registered in courses/modules must withdraw separately from those courses/modules.

Deadlines for Dropping or Withdrawing from Courses Students ceasing class attendance after the last date to withdraw will receive a final grade based on the normal course requirements, with a numerical value of "0" calculated into the final grade for all course requirements not completed. Ceasing to attend class does not constitute an official withdrawal. Students must notify the Registrar's Office by email before the withdrawal date to withdraw from a course. The academic calendar lists the withdrawal dates. Students who withdraw from a course can no longer attend or participate in that course and will be removed from Blackboard. In the event the College suspends or dismisses a student, tuition and other charges will be calculated in the same manner described above for students withdrawing.

Certificate of Advanced Accounting Courses Drops in the first week of a module or course (first five class days whether the course starts online or face-to-face) carry no academic or financial penalty. If the approved date of the withdrawal occurs between the end of the first week and the 60 percent point of the academic period, tuition and fees will be prorated and the student will receive a grade of "W" for the course in progress at the time of withdrawal. No withdrawals will be approved and no tuition will be refunded after the 60 percent point of the academic period. Dropping or withdrawing from a core course constitutes withdrawal from the Certificate of Advanced Accounting program, except for an approved leave of absence request.
