FINANCIAL AID
Babson's F.W. Olin Graduate School of Business offers a variety of financial aid programs and financing options to MSF students.

MERIT SCHOLARSHIPS
Merit scholarships are offered to the most highly qualified candidates. Students will be considered for merit awards based on their admission application materials; no separate application is necessary. Candidates are notified of merit awards at the time of acceptance into the program. A complete listing of merit scholarships can be found online at www.babson.edu/gradaid.

WELLESLEY/NEEDHAM TOWN SCHOLARSHIPS
Babson provides funding for selected town residents or high school graduates who demonstrate financial need. Preference is given to long-term residents pursuing full-time study. An application to the town’s Board of Selectmen is required.

CANADIAN SCHOLARSHIP
This scholarship is awarded, based on need, to Canadian citizens. Preference is given to full-time students who have attended McGill University. Other funding limitations may apply. To be considered, complete the College Scholarship Service PROFILE form online at www.cssprofile.org.

FEDERAL STUDENT LOANS
U.S. citizens and permanent residents of the U.S. are encouraged to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid at www.fafsa.gov in order to receive the Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan. The maximum amount a graduate student may borrow through this program is $20,500 per year. Graduate students also may borrow through the Federal Graduate PLUS Loan Program.

SUPPLEMENTAL LOANS
Credit-based loans are available to help you to finance your educational and living expenses. Your credit history and a co-applicant’s credit history will help you to secure financing at the best rates. A number of loan programs allow international students to apply. Babson’s loan recommendations are available at www.elmselect.com. Please note that you are in no way limited to the recommended loans or lenders. Babson will process a loan from any lender, and it is your right to apply for a loan through the lender of your choice.
